Volume XXXII

Foreword

You have before you a history book. But wait—do not shut the covers too quickly. Lessons are over now! This is a history of your college days.

Within these pages, we have hoped to enshrine some of the scenes, the people, the happenings, and some of the memories that have made M. S. C. W. for you.

Herein you will find recorded a year's life at "The Oldest and Best"—a record as old and as beautiful as "The Princess" within her turreted mansions of learning—and yet, as new and as modern as the class that is graduated in this year of nineteen-hundred-and-thirty-one.

Dedication

To one who by twenty-nine years of service to M. S. C. W. has created for herself an endeared place in the life of the college, and a lasting shrine in the hearts of the girls who have come under her influence, do we, the Class of '31, with love and appreciation, dedicate this twenty-second volume of

Meh Lady

First History Student: "That dumb girl didn't get Mr. Amaeker's joke about the Egyptian guide who showed some tourists two skulls of Cleopatra, one as a girl and one as a woman."

Second History Student: "Didn't? Well, let's hear it."

* * *

Then there was a freshman who thought an autobiography was a diary of trips in the family car.

* * *

Junior: "Mr. Smith, I've been getting threatening letters through the mail. Isn't there a law against that?"

Mr. Smith: "Of course, there is. It's a very serious offense to send threatening letters. Have you any idea who's doing it?"

Junior: "Sure—Loeb's."

HOW MANY PINS ON THIS SLANG?

"If a man married a widow named Elizabeth with two children, what would he have?"

"A second-hand Lizzie and two runabouts."

* * *

Cutter (one who cuts): "Doctor, don't you think I have mumps?"

Dr. F.: "Not yet, but I'll write you out a list of symptoms, and you can go home and start working on them."

* * *

M. Brown: "Look here, you've been owing me this bill for a year—I'll meet you half way. I'm ready to forget half you owe."

Quick Debtor: "Good! Then I'll meet you. I'll forget the other half."

"Is Mary educated?"

"Is she! She's been to half the colleges on her hat-box labels."

MOTHER GOOSE OF THE DINING HALL

Handy-Spandy, Jack-a-dandy,
Loved plum cake and sugar candy.

But he got spinach and carrots, just as all the other little folks do.

NORTHEAST MISSISSIPPI'S LARGEST STORE

SIMON LOEB & BRO.

An Institution of Public Service

We are proud of the patronage accorded us by the "Girls in Blue"—and we want to extend our thanks for the privilege of serving them.

To those who go out from M. S. C. W. not to return, we bid good-bye—the under classes, au revoir.

Wherever you go—whatever you do—always remember "The College Girls' Store"

We're perfect roommates—we never quarrel. If a difference of opinion arises and I am right, Mary gives in immediately. And if she is right—that never happens!

* * *

Miss White: "Miss Pohl asked me to teach you dumbells."

Mr. Ferguson (in Chemistry Class): "Miss Jackson, what is steam?"

Frances: "Little drops of water gone crazy with the heat."

* * *

Thrilled Freshman: "Did you see that senior smile at me?"

Soph: "Yes, but the first time I saw you, I had to smile, too."

SENIOR APPLYING!

Superintendent: "But you're asking for a rather high salary, seeing you know nothing about the work—"

Mackey: "But you see—not knowing the work makes it so much harder for me."

* * *

Freshmen are not the only dumb ones. In Junior Education a Junior wrote, "Convalescing is that age in a young person's life between the years of 12 and 17."

At the last minute before 9:30, a freshman rushed into the library asking for a book.

Student: "I want a copy of the 'Kentucky Cardinal'."

Librarian (tired and rather abruptly): "Look under Religious Books in the catalogue."

Freshman (timidly): "But—but this cardinal was a bird."

Librarian (emphatically): "Young lady, I have no interest in his personal habits." And she went on stacking books.

SIXTY-FOURTH YEAR IN BUSINESS IN COLUMBUS

BEARD'S

Naturally we feel the keenest interest in all M. S. C. W. students, for to you of the 1931 Class—also to the many former students of the great College—do we attribute a great part of the remarkable growth of this big store.

WE AIM TO PLEASE

First Floor—Dry Goods Department, Shoe Department
Second Floor—Ready-to-Wear Department, Millinery Department
Third Floor—House Furnishing Department
Below First Floor—Our Big Bargain Basement

HAVE WE RULES?

Freshman: "Margaret, are you a freshman?"

Margaret: "No, I'm a junior."

Freshman (innocently): "Well, how do you get out of wearing your collar?"

* * *

We're Parisians, too—
"Whine, women, whine!"

IN CHAPEL

Sallie (perturbed): "I shall have to ask you to leave if you persist in hissing the program."

Ada Page: "Hissssing! I w-w-w-w-was s-s-s-simply s-s-s-saying the s-s-s-singing was s-s-s-superb."

* * *

"I believe you're right. I heard him say yesterday that he was going to Switzerland for his lungs."

* * *

FROM A SENIOR'S POINT OF VIEW

A senior stood on a railroad track,
The train was coming fast;
The train got off the railroad track
To let the senior pass (?).

Sara Bailey: "Miss McIntosh, you can't punish anyone when they haven't done anything, can you?"

Miss McIntosh: "Why, no."

Sara Bailey: "Well, I haven't done my reading for Medieval History."

* * *

Soph (on the way to Play Hour): "Going to the gym tonight?"

Fresh (newly arrived): "Oh, no, I had gym this morning."

* * *

And there was the small-town girl that had the whole town to meet her when she went home—because in the spring she had written that she'd been made light proctor.
